Transfer of ISE Accounts from Citibank to MD Management

The Board of the International Society of Enzymology unanimously approved the following resolution by means of a postal ballot counted and recorded by the President on the 28th of April 2004 with the participation of all Board members, namely:

- Mario Plebani (President)
- Eleftherios P. Diamandis (Vice-President and Treasurer)
- Catherine M. Sturgeon (Executive Secretary)
- Francesco Salvatore (Past-President).
- Daniel Chan (Councilor)

“Be it resolved that the moneys, accounts, and all manner of funds held in the name of the International Society of Enzymology by Citibank, New York, undergo immediate transfer in their current denomination as United States Dollars to MD Management of Toronto, Canada. The said MD Management undertakes to hold these moneys, accounts and funds on behalf of the International Society of Enzymology in the same denomination but within the Province of Ontario, Canada, there to be invested, held or disbursed according to instructions agreed by the Board of the Society as conveyed under the joint signatures of Dr. Eleftherios P. Diamandis and Dr. David M. Goldberg.”
